PART REGGAE PLAYGROUND, PART TROPICAL WEDDING PARADISE, ALL IRIE.

The third-largest Caribbean island, Jamaica is home to 635 miles of coastline and wedding-ready properties, from all-inclusives to villas. Negril has the perfect combo of pristine beach and lively nightlife; energetic Montego Bay is a hotel hub surrounded by a lush landscape and turquoise waters; and romantic Ocho Rios served as backdrop to both the James Bond film Dr. No and Marilyn Monroe's honeymoon with Arthur Miller.

Marrying couples must be on the island 24 hours prior to the ceremony with marriage license in hand. Send paperwork, including certified copies of birth certificates, to the Ministry of National Security at least several weeks in advance; most resorts or local wedding planners can assist with this. — Brooke Showell

JAMAICA INN

JAMAICA

Nestled on a 700-foot private beach in Ocho Rios, each of Jamaica Inn's 48 airy suites and four cottages faces the Caribbean Sea. Family-owned since the 1950s, the 8-acre boutique echoes with old-fashioned charm in its black-and-white Old Hollywood photos, colonial-era island antiques and grand traditions. Whether it's a party on the lawn or a ceremony on the sand, weddings are intimate and personal (100 guests max). There's no distraction of TVs, so honeymooners can unplug with a rum punch, a fishing excursion, a croquet game or a massage in the Ocean Spa's thatch-roof hut. 800.837.4608, jamaicainn.com — BS
